The Belt and Road Initiative Tax
Administration Cooperation Mechanism

EDITOR'S NOTE:

At this critical moment in the world's fight against the COVID-19, the Special Edition of the BRITACOM Update on COVID-19 is issued, aiming to provide a platform for BRITACOM Council Members, Observers and other stakeholders to exchange views and share experience in responding to the outbreak. Issue 13 is about response of the Tax Policy Measures in Response to COVID-19 Crisis provided by General Department of Taxation of the Kingdom of Cambodia. Later we will share more experience of tax administrations from countries and regions and views of international organizations and tax experts with you. If you would like to make contributions to the Special Edition, please contact us via email britacom@163.com.

Tax Policy Measures in Response to COVID-19 Crisis

Georgia, as the vast majority of countries around the globe, could not avoid the spread of COVID-19. Thanks to the government's quick reaction to the potential pandemic threat declared by the WHO, Georgia could keep the rate of infection relatively low, compared with its neighbours in the region and many other countries in Europe. This article introduces the countermeasures taken by Georgia from the following aspects.

1. Measures to Support Tourism Sector

Exemption of monthly taxes for 4 months from February to May, 2020 for hotel and guesthouse which registered with the General Department of Taxation in Siem Reap. Hotels and guesthouses are still obliged to file tax returns and use the online VAT system (E-VAT) every month for the tax exemption period,

No comprehensive audit for the year of 2020 for hotels and guesthouses registered with the General Department of Taxation having business activities in Siem Reap.

4. Additional Measures Aimed at Assisting the Private Sector and Employees

A. Aviation Sector

Minimum tax exemption for three months from March to May, 2020 for Cambodian airlines.

Delayed payment of civil airfare for six months with the permission for those airlines to prepare for debt payment by installment after the delayed period.

B. Tourism Sector

Expanding on all types of monthly tax exemption for three months from March to May, 2020 for hotels, guesthouses, restaurants and travel agencies which registered with General Department of Taxation having business activities in Phnom Penh, Siem Reap, Sihanoukville, Kep, Kampot, Bavet and Poipet. These business owners are still obligated to file a tax return and use the online tax administration (E-VAT) every month during the exemption period.

The taxpayer is required to file the 2019 income tax return by the end of March, 2020 at the earliest, but tax payment is allowed to be paid off every month until November, 2020.

Expand the scope of the Contribution Mechanism of 20% minimum wage (20% of $190) from the Government to employees affected by closing or suspension of business of hotels, guesthouses, restaurants and travel agencies which registered with the General Department of Taxation. The subsidy of 20% of the minimum salary is required in conjunction with the conditions for attending a one/two-week training course organized by the Ministry of Tourism.

There is no requirement to pay for contributions on employment and healthcare risks regime (National Social Security Fund) benefits during suspension or business suspension.
