

Responding to COVID-19: BRITACOM PERSPECTIVE, 2 June 2020

Script of speech

Mr. Myo Min Latt, Deputy Director, Tax Policy and Research Directorate, Internal Revenue Department, Ministry of Planning, Finance and Industry, Myanmar

Mingalaba! A very good evening to all of you.

Mr. Excellencies, honorable speakers, distinguished guests, ladies and gentlemen.

It is my privilege to present, on behalf of Myanmar delegation, in this meeting as a new observer of BRITACOM.

I am pleased to note that this meeting has well organized and very supportive to fight the Covid-19 pandemic. Also, Myanmar wants to offer its heartfelt empathy to the countries that are suffered.

To take advantage of today's meeting, I want to present our tax reform briefly.

Internal Revenue Department of Myanmar is stepping their second stage tax reform program. So, the observership to BRITACOM is a great milestone and achievement of our department. We hope to expand the tax treaties with our counterparts in the future. We, therefore, want to increase our capacity. We would like to requests BRITACOM supports to our capacity development by its various resources.

Excellencies, Distinguished guests:

I believe BRITACOM will achieve its goals with the solidarity, strength and coordination among the participants.

I would like to highlight the BRITACOM achievement, "Wuzhen Action Plan". I am pleased to note that it is the path and well organized framework to accomplish its goals.

And also the event such as this we join together to think, imagine and seek ways to drive and head towards the better future.

As we walk this path together, I look forward to a closer cooperation with all of you in the future.

Let me close my speech and thank you for your kind attention.
