

About us

The Belt and Road Initiative Tax Administration Cooperation Mechanism (BRITACOM) is a non-profit official mechanism for tax administration cooperation amongst the jurisdictions that subscribe to the Belt and Road Initiative (BRI jurisdictions).

Heads and representatives of tax administrations (TAs) or finance departments from 85 jurisdictions, 16 international organizations and a number of institutions and businesses participated in the First Belt and Road Initiative Tax Administration Cooperation Forum (BRITACOF) in April 2019 during which 36 jurisdictions signed the Memorandum of Understanding on the Establishment of the Belt and Road Initiative Tax Administration Cooperation Mechanism (MoU) to become founding Member TAs of the Council and 30 jurisdictions and international institutions signed the MoU to become Observers of the Council. The BRITACOM was officially launched, and the Wuzhen Statement and the Wuzhen Action Plan(2019-2021) were adopted.

Vision

The vision of the BRITACOM is to facilitate trade and investment, foster economic growth of the BRI jurisdictions and contribute to the fulfillment of inclusive and sustainable development as set out in the United Nations' 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

Purpose

Supporting and complementing such prevailing international tax standards as the OECD and UN Model Tax Conventions, the OECD and UN Transfer Pricing Guidelines, the Inclusive Framework on Base Erosion and Profit Shifting and the Global Forum on Tax Transparency and Exchange of Information, the BRITACOM aims to contribute to building a growth-friendly tax environment through cooperation and sharing of best practices in following rule of law, raising tax certainty, expediting tax dispute resolution, improving taxpayer service, and enhancing tax capacity building.

Structure

The BRITACOM consists of the following bodies:

- The Council, is the decision-making body of the BRITACOM.
- The BRITACOF, is a non-profit official event authorized by the Council. In principle, the BRITACOF conference should be hosted every 12 months.
- The BRITACEG (Belt and Road Initiative Tax Administration Capacity Enhancement Group), is a network composed of willing Member TAs and Observers of the Council which, making full use of their existing training institutions or expertise, are dedicated to conducting tax-related training, research and technical assistance programs.
- The Secretariat, not a legal entity, is the liaison office of the BRITACOM located in Beijing, supporting the routine operation of the Council, the BRITACOF and the BRITACEG.
